georgia.org/CameraReady

WHAT IS CAMERA READY:

- A special designation given by the Georgia Film, Music and Digital Entertainment Office (FMDE) to assist counties in attracting film and TV production.
- The Camera Ready county liaison will be the primary contact for production companies and assist the state in promoting the county by providing local information and location photos.

WHY CAMERA READY:

- To provide easier, faster and better access to county production resources and location information.
- A variety of shooting locations are needed due to an increase in film and TV production across the state.
- Local economic impact from productions can be significant, including hiring of local residents, hotel stays and purchases of goods and services.

HOW TO BECOME CAMERA READY:

- Designate an official county representative to serve as Camera Ready liaison.
- Visit Georgia.org/CameraReady and fill out an application.
